

St John's C of E Primary Academy

Equality Policy

Author: Sarah Cockshott

Date of issue: September 2017

Review date: September 2018

Key Personnel

Principal: Sarah Cockshott

Chair of Governors: Fr Roger Gilbert

Equality Policy

This single Equality Policy sets out St John's CE Primary Academy's relentless focus on ensuring that all pupils, staff and visitors are treated with respect and have equal opportunity without discrimination of any kind. It reflects the legal duties set out in the Equality Act 2010 and non- statutory guidance set out by the government in December 2011 and March 2012. Part One sets out the academy's aims to promote equality of opportunity and comply with the Act; Part Two sets out the legal duties which are referred to in Part One. Part One.

The primary aim of St John's CE Primary Academy is to enable all pupils to take part as fully as possible in every part of academy life by developing each child's self-confidence, recognising their strengths and encouraging them to achieve their full potential. St John's will take steps to advance equality of opportunity, foster good relations and eliminate discrimination or harassment across all the protected characteristics (age, race, gender reassignment, disability, marriage and civil partnership, religion and belief, pregnancy and maternity, gender, socio-economic background or sexual orientation) within the academy community.

This means: We will take necessary steps to meet the needs of pupils by using a variety of approaches and planning reasonable adjustments for pupils of all groups, thus enabling all our pupils to take as full a part as possible in all the activities of the academy.

We will make adjustments to ensure the academy environment and its activities are as accessible and welcoming as possible for all pupils, staff and visitors to the academy. We are also committed to ensuring staff have equality of opportunity without discrimination of any kind. We will actively encourage positive attitudes towards all pupils and staff and expect everyone to treat others with dignity and respect.

We will regularly consider the ways in which the taught and wider curriculum will help to promote awareness of the rights of individuals and develop the skills of participation and responsible action. We will regularly consider the ways in which our teaching and the curriculum provision will support high standards of attainment, promote common values, and help students understand and value the diversity that surrounds them, and challenge prejudice and stereotyping.

We will monitor the progress and achievement of pupils by the relevant and appropriate protected characteristics (see Equality Statement). This information will help the academy to ensure that individual pupils are achieving their potential. The academy is inclusive in practice, and trends are identified which inform the setting of our equality objectives in the academy improvement plan.

We will collect and analyse information about protected characteristics in relation to staff recruitment, retention, training opportunities and promotions to ensure all staff have equality of opportunity.

We will not ask health-related questions to job applicants before offering a job, unless it relates to an intrinsic function of the work they do. We will make reasonable adjustments such as providing auxiliary aids for disabled staff. Staff will ensure the curriculum is accessible to all pupils with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) or those for whom English is not their first language.

Auxiliary aids and services will be provided for them, where reasonable adjustments are required. By planning ahead, staff will ensure that all pupils are able to take part in extra-curricular activities and residential visits, and the academy will monitor the uptake of these visits to ensure no one is disadvantaged on the grounds of a protected characteristic. We will seek the views of advisory staff and outside agencies and partnerships with other academies where this is needed. In planning the curriculum and resources the academy will take every opportunity to promote and advance equality.

Bullying and Prejudice Related Incidents will be carefully monitored and dealt with effectively. Training will be given to staff to ensure that they are aware of the process for reporting and following up incidents of prejudice-related bullying. We expect that all staff will be role-models for equal opportunities, deal with bullying and discriminatory incidents and be able to identify and challenge prejudice and stereotyping. Throughout the year, the academy will hold events to raise awareness of equality and diversity. This may include a focus on respect for other cultures, religions and beliefs, and developing an understanding of the effects of discrimination.

We will ensure pupil/parent/staff consultation is sought when reviewing this policy. We will regularly seek the views of pupils, parents, advisory staff and visitors to the academy, to ensure that the academy environment is as safe and accessible as possible to all academy users. We will regularly review our accessibility plans.

The academy welcomes a diverse range of candidates and encourages those who are currently under-represented to join the academy. We will ensure that all staff are aware of their legal duties under the Equality Act 2010, the different forms of discrimination and what 'reasonable adjustments' mean in practice. The academy will consult with stakeholders, i.e. pupils, parents/carers, staff and relevant community groups, to establish equality objectives and draw up a plan based on information. St John's CE Primary Academy collects information about protected groups and accessibility planning. These equality objectives will be reviewed and reported on annually. The local academy committee must consider to what extent a new/revised policy, practice or plan meets the Public Sector Equality Duties (eliminates discrimination, advances equality and fosters good relations for all the protected characteristics) and recommend changes/mitigations should it feel the policy, practice or plan could be improved to fulfil the duties.

Part Two Our Legal Duties Legislation relating to equality and discrimination is laid out in the Equality Act 2010. This legislation covers employment (work), the provision of services and public functions, and education. Employers (schools) are liable for discriminatory acts of their employees if they did not take reasonable steps to prevent such acts. Employees can be liable for acts (where an employer took reasonable steps to prevent such acts).

The 'Protected Characteristics' within equality law are:

Age - A person of a particular age (e.g. 32 year old) or a range of ages (e.g. 18 - 30 year olds). Age discrimination does not apply to the provision of education, but it does apply to work.

Disability - A person has a disability if s/he has, or has had, a physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities. It includes discrimination arising from something connected with their disability such as use of aids or medical conditions. HIV, multiple sclerosis and cancer are all considered as disabilities, regardless of their effect.

Gender reassignment - A person (usually with 'gender dysphoria') who is proposing to undergo, is undergoing or has undergone gender reassignment (the process of changing physiological or other attributes of sex, therefore changing from male to female, or female to male). 'Trans' is an umbrella term to describe people with this 'Gender Identity'. 'The academy will treat Intersex children with the same degree of equality as children with gender dysphoria. Children as young as five may begin to show signs of gender dysphoria and therefore it is relevant in any academy environment.

Marriage and civil partnership – Marriage and civil partnership discrimination does not apply to the provision of education, but it does apply to work.

Pregnancy and maternity - Maternity refers to the period of 26 weeks after the birth (including still births), which reflects the period of a woman's Maternity Leave entitlement in the employment context. In employment, it also covers (where eligible) the period up to the end of her Additional Maternity Leave.

Race - A person's colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin. It includes Travellers and Gypsies as well as White British people. Religion and belief - Religious and philosophical beliefs including lack of belief. Generally, a belief should affect your life choices or the way you live for it to be included in the definition. Religion and belief discrimination does not prevent a academy from carrying out collective worship or other curriculum-based activities, but pupils may withdraw from acts of collective worship.

Sexual orientation - A person's sexual orientation towards the same sex (lesbian or gay), the opposite sex (heterosexual) or to both sexes (bisexual). Although children may not identify as gay or lesbian when very young, promotion of sexual orientation equality is as relevant in a primary academy environment as it is in a secondary academy. For example, a child may have an older sibling or parent who is gay. Children may experience friends 'questioning' or 'coming out' when they are in secondary academy or college. Academies with a particular religious ethos cannot discriminate against lesbian, gay or bisexual pupils. It is also unlawful to discriminate because of the sex, race, disability, religion or belief, sexual orientation or gender reassignment of another person with whom the pupil is associated. So, for example, a academy must not discriminate by refusing to admit a pupil because his parents are gay men or lesbians. It would be race discrimination to treat a white pupil less favourably because she has a black boyfriend. 'Prohibited Conduct' (acts that are unlawful).

Direct discrimination - Less favourable treatment because of a protected characteristic. Indirect discrimination A provision, criteria or practice that puts a person at a particular disadvantage and is not a proportionate means of achieving a legitimate aim.

Harassment Conduct which has the purpose or effect of violating dignity or creating a intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. It includes harassment by a third party (e.g. customer or contractor) in the employment context. Victimisation Subjecting a person to a detriment because of their involvement with proceedings (a complaint) brought in connection with this Act.

Discrimination arising from disability - Treating someone unfavourably because of something connected with their disability (such as periods of absence from work or medical conditions) and failure to make reasonable adjustments.

Gender re-assignment discrimination - Not allowing reasonable absence from work for the purpose of gender-reassignment in line with normal provision such as sick leave). Pregnancy/maternity related discrimination

Unfavourable treatment because of pregnancy or maternity. It includes unfavourable treatment of a woman or girl because she is breastfeeding.

Discrimination by association or perception - For example, discriminating against someone because they "look gay", or because they have a gay brother; discriminating against someone because they care for a disabled relative. Academies are allowed to treat disabled pupils more favourably than non-disabled pupils, and in some cases are required to do so, by making reasonable adjustments to put them on a more level footing with pupils without disabilities.

Public Sector Duties (applies to schools):

A academy must, in the exercise of its functions, give due regard to the need to (in relation to protected characteristics above):

- Eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other prohibited conduct.
- Advance equality of opportunity (removes or minimise disadvantage; meet people's needs; take account of disabilities; encourage participation in public life).
- Foster good relations between people (tackle prejudice and promote understanding). In practice, 'due regard' means giving relevant and proportionate consideration to the duty, so decision makers in academies must have due regard when making a decision, developing a policy or taking an action as to whether it may have implications for people because of their protected characteristics.

Reasonable Adjustments and Accessibility Plans - Academies are required to:

- Take reasonable steps to avoid disadvantage caused by a provision, criteria or practice or a physical feature that puts a disabled person at a substantial disadvantage compared to a non-disabled person. This involves removing or avoiding a physical feature, for example steps and lifts.
- Take reasonable steps to provide auxiliary aids/services.
- Provide information in an accessible format.
- Develop and implement (by allocating appropriate resources)
- Accessibility Plans to: Increase disabled pupils' access to the academy curriculum
Improve the physical environment
Improve provision of information. The academy will need to plan ahead for the reasonable adjustments that it may need to make, working with the relevant admissions authority as appropriate.

Responsibilities –

Governing Body - Ensure that the academy complies with equality-related legislation. Ensure that the policy and its procedures are implemented by the Headteacher.

Ensure all other academy policies promote equality. Give due regard to the Public Sector Equality Duty when making decisions.

Headteacher –

- Implement the policy and its related procedures.
- Make all staff aware of their responsibilities and provide training as appropriate to enable them to effectively deliver this policy.
- Take appropriate action in any case of actual or potential discrimination.
- Ensure that all staff understand their duties regarding recruitment and providing reasonable adjustments to staff. It is unlawful for an employer to enquire about the health of an applicant for a job until a job offer has been made, unless the questions are specifically related to an intrinsic function of the work - for example ensuring that applicants for a PE teaching post have the physical capability to carry out the duties.
- Academies should no longer require job applicants to complete a generic health questionnaire. Neither should an academy seek out past sickness records until they have made a job offer.
- Ensure that all staff and pupils are aware of the process for reporting and following up bullying and prejudice-related incidents. Deal with bullying and discriminatory incidents, and know how to identify and challenge prejudice and stereotyping.
- Promote equality and good relations and not discriminate on any grounds. Attend such training and information opportunities as necessary to enact this policy and keep up to date with equality legislation. Staff should be models of equal opportunities through their words and actions.

Pupils - Refrain from engaging in discriminatory behaviour or any other behaviour that contravenes this policy.

Visitors (e.g. parent helpers, contractors) To be aware of, and comply with, the academy's equality policy and to refrain from engaging in discriminatory behaviour (for example, racist language) on academy premises.